

About New Mexico.

(To the Editor Interior Journal.)

Since I came home from N. M. I have been asked many questions about the country, climate, etc., its advantages and disadvantages. So in order to save time I will let the I. J. do some of the talking for me.

There were seven of us together, Messrs. Hays, Hood and Linville, of Somerset; Dr. Perkins, of Bee Lick; Gooch, of Wayneburg; J. R. Bailey, of Crab Orchard, and myself. This gay party was chaperoned by Col. James Manale, of Abilene, Tex., who is one of the nicest men I ever met. He was with us during the entire trip and we found him to be a perfect gentleman in every respect. He is the agent for the Pecos Valley Irrigation and Improvement Company and is on the road almost all the time.

We also had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Eddy, the founder of the town of Eddy, also the president of the company.

THE CLIMATE.

The climate in the Pecos Valley is delightful. The thermometer often stands at 105° and 110° in the middle of the day, but the heat is not so oppressive as it would be here at 95°. You can rest very comfortably in the shade with a heavy coat on for there is a delightful breeze stirring most all the time.

About the products of the valley: They raise most everything there that is raised in Kentucky and many that are not, such as alfalfa and different kinds of fruits. Alfalfa is raised there in great abundance; its average is about six tons per acre, is cut from 3 to 6 times a year and is worth from $16 to $18 per ton. Don't think there are many farmers, even in the blue grass section, that realize as much on their lands. We also had the pleasure of eating some very fine fruits, such as apples, peaches, apricots, plums, crabs, etc. Saw some fine vineyards, one of 640 acres, but the grapes were not ripe, so we did not enjoy them so well. Fruit trees are much more thrifty there than here and the fruit is not so faulty.

The water is not so good there as we have here for it is not so cold, but it is there in great abundance. There is one spring 2 miles above Eddy that flows 20,000,000 every 24 hours. The Pecos river is supplied wholly by springs, which are very numerous along its banks and in the river bed.

We had some very fine sport between Eddy and Roswell, a distance of 95 miles, which we drove in 12 hours, shooting at antelope, jack rabbits, prairie dogs, etc. Mr. Bailey claimed to be the crack shot of the party, but we could not get him to shoot any. Said it would be no sport to him and he wanted to give us a chance. Of course we know Mr. Bailey has been on several hunting expeditions, but we didn't see the game, we just take his word for it.

I don't ask anybody to take my word for anything I say about this country. Go and see for yourself. For my part, I hope to be there by the first of September, and hope to meet many of my Kentucky friends there. W. S. BRAZLEY.

A Sedentary Occupation.

plenty of sitting down and not much exercise, ought to have Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets to go with it. They absolutely and permanently cure constipation. One tiny, sugar-coated Pellet is a corrective, a regulator, a gentle laxative. They are the smallest, the easiest to take and the most natural remedy—no reaction afterward. Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Indigestion, Bloating, At tacks and all stomach and bowel derangements are prevented, relieved and cured.

A "cold in the head" is quickly cured by Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. So is catarrh, headache and every trouble caused by catarrh. So is catarrh itself. The proprietors offer $500 for any case which they cannot cure.

Dr. M. J. Davis is a prominent physician of Lewis, Cass county, Iowa, and has been actively engaged in the practice of medicine at that place for the past 35 years. On the 26th of May, while on his morning route to Chicago, he was suddenly taken with an attack of diarrhoea. Having sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for the past 17 years, and knowing its reliability, he procured a 5 cent bottle, two doses of which completely cured him. The excitement and change of water and diet incident to traveling often produce a diarrhoea. Every one should procure a bottle of this remedy before leaving home. For sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam, of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, in the treatment of diarrhoea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhoea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I know of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by W. B. McRoberts, Stanford, Ky.

Mr. Thomas Batte, editor of the Graphic, Texarkana, Arkansas, has found what he believes to be the best remedy in existence for flux. His experience is well worth remembering. He says: "Last Summer I had a severe attack of flux, relieved almost every known remedy, none giving relief. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me. I purchased a bottle and used the medicine and was entirely cured. I take pleasure in recommending this remedy to any person suffering with such a disease, as in my opinion it is the best medicine in existence." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by W. B. McRoberts, Druggist, Stanford.

Silas and Dorothy Jones, of Racine, near Pomeroy, O., celebrated the 60th anniversary of marriage. Mrs. Jones' mother died in July last at Letart, aged 105 years.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Miss Della Hughes, a Lancaster beauty, is visiting Mrs. Cleo Brown at Mt. Vernon.

—Brother Frank continues to improve and his physicians entertain the belief that he will soon recover.

—Dr. Louis McMurtry, of Louisville, and W. C. Price, of Danville, visited Lancaster on Friday evening and were cordially greeted by their many friends and acquaintances.

—The committee appointed at the citizens' meeting to look after the water works of the town have hopes of securing and think it will not be long until the town is supplied with an abundance of excellent water.

—A congregational meeting of the Presbyterian church has been called for Saturday, Aug. 19, at 4 p. m., which all the members of the church and congregation are requested to attend, as business of importance is to be transacted.

—The first rain that has fallen in Lancaster for several weeks was on Friday night. It was a good one and has refreshed the earth and benefited the crops materially, for which, in the language of Brother Barnes, "Praise the Lord."

—The most troublesome thing on the public square at present is a hen with 13 chickens. She seems to be very proud of her progeny and does not seem to realize the fact that they will soon be large enough to fry.

—The docket of the Circuit Court, which convenes on the 21st inst., is remarkably light. Very few suits have been brought and with the exception of some criminal cases there will be but little business to occupy the time of the court.

—This has been an unfortunate year for the World's Fair. It commenced in trouble and is likely to end in trouble. Among the managers, men and women, there has been an incessant wrangle and scarcely anything has been done that has not met with opposition. The cholera scare has prevented foreigners from visiting the Fair; the Sunday opening has been a cause of general disturbance; now comes the report of yellow fever and new cases of cholera. It is in progress at a time when the business of the country is deranged; no sale for the products of the earth; no money even to put them upon the market; banks suspending by the wholesale all over the country; hundreds of thousands of men and women out of employment, who are begging their brothers of the earth.

"To give them leave to toil." Millions of money have been frittered away in this World's Fair tomfoolery that could have been used for far better purposes. Mr. Chauncey M. Depew, the after-dinner orator and sage of New York, claimed not long since that the country was prosperous, and as an evidence of that fact said the railroad travel was as great as ever. He has changed his mind and in consequence of the falling off in travel, has withdrawn from the New York Central four fast Chicago trains in the last few days. He says "there isn't business enough to keep them going. It is not lack of disposition to go to Chicago; it's the general business depression." Mr. DeFew has a fine education; a glib tongue and a keen eye for the almighty dollar. He claimed not long since to be a political prophet, but the result showed that he was not even a distant relative of a prophet. It is strange, yet nevertheless true, that you may take a man of over average intellect and by constant petting make a fool of him. He hears so much of his greatness that he is impressed with the idea that it is a reality and his conduct thereafter is based solely upon the cherished belief that all that has been said in praise of his wonderful attainments is true.

DANVILLE.

—Local dealers are offering 48 cents for wheat.

—J. A. Hugueny sold his entire crop of 92 whisky, 800 barrels, to a New York firm for 35 cents per gallon. It was a good sale.

—The Danville scrub nine defeated the Junction City team Thursday by a score of 29 to 10. Nichols and Temple and Morrow and McRoberts were the batteries for Danville.

—Mr. F. Hays, of Louisville, accompanied by Mr. S. Straus, manager of the Louisville store, Georgetown, was here yesterday arranging for the opening of a new dry goods, shoe and notion store in Danville, September 1st.—Advocate.

The Eminent Specialist Will Be Here.

Dr. Appleman will make his regular visit to Stanford next Tuesday, Aug. 15, at the Myers House, where we advise all those suffering from the various diseases, the treatment of which the doctor makes a specialty, to call and consult with him. He treats everybody right and in the two years he has been coming to our city has made many friends and effected many cures where other physicians failed. By all means go and see him.

—The monthly statement shows that there are $256,884.93 in the Kentucky State Treasury.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—Mrs. Sam Hughes, of Danville, with her two sweet little children, and her sister, Katie Hicks, were guests of Mrs. W. K. Buchanan, Sunday.

—We had a slight hint that there is to be another wedding next month. And right here we say the lady is mighty pretty and sweet and the man is lucky who gets her.

—Mrs. J. B. Huffman and family, who came over from Lexington to enjoy our healing waters, returned to that city Saturday. They are a most interesting and pleasant family with many friends here.

—Mrs. J. E. Lawless and little Jimmie Scott, of Lexington, are here at their old home. Mr. Lawless has his house nearly completed and are rejoiced at having them with us again. Mr. W. Stuart Myers, of St. Louis, is with friends here after a long absence.

—The many friends of Harve Helm rejoice at his success and feel that the county has made a wise choice. Having known him since his boyhood we feel safe in saying that old Lincoln will yet be proud of him and that he will fully sustain the confidence placed in him.

—Mrs. Annie Lord left Sunday for her home in Frankton, Ind., and took her brother Jim Sigler with her. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander returned to their home at New Liberty Sunday after a pleasant stay with Mrs. Wm. Stuart. Prof. S. D. Willis is here working up an interest in his school, which opens next month. Mr. Joe Carson and family are visiting Mrs. Brooks and J. E. Carson.

—Crab Orchard has been on the war path this week—several knock downs, arrests and fines and one man had to go to jail. A gentleman who once lived here was heard to say he hardly felt that he was in Crab Orchard, all was so quiet, but old memories have been awakened by this week's work and we suppose he feels once more at home. Whisky is of course the cause of all the trouble, as it always is.

—Saturday night a difficulty arose between the Kennedy brothers and Frank Brooks, of Gum Sulphur. Mr. P. Parrish espoused the cause of the Kennedys and was considerably cut by Brooks. One gash reached from behind his ear to his cheek, laying the flesh wide open. One nearly severed his right wrist and another scalp wound. Drs. Edmiston, Pettus and Doores sewed up the wounds and the patient is doing as well as could be expected after the loss of so much blood. No arrests have been made.

—There will be a prayer meeting at the Christian church every Wednesday night to which everyone is kindly invited, except those who make the meeting a convenient time for having a good time talking and laughing. Come with one purpose to serve God and show gratitude for blessings received. Rev. Briney preached Saturday and Sunday at the Christian church. Rev. Anderson, of Tennessee, preached at the Baptist church last Thursday night.

—Mr. Sam Magee is home after a long stay in Shelbyville, Ind. Mrs. Leila Livingston, husband and baby, are at Dr. Doores'. They visited the World's Fair before coming here. Mrs. Robt. Pitman and children, of Parksville, are with Mrs. Rhoda Higgins. Mr. Chris Hutchison has moved into the house formerly occupied by G. W. Lee. Messrs. Sam and Ethel Scott, of Somerset, have joined their mother and brother here. Mrs. Jennie Burke has gone to visit her sister, Mrs. Steinbergen, of Paris, and from there she goes to Lexington where she will reside. Judge Stephen Barch paid our town a short visit last week. Mr. W. K. Buchanan is spending a few days with his family here.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—A little girl of George H. Brown, about three years old, suffered a terrible accident this morning which caused her death. The little child was eating breakfast with a knife and fell from the chair, the knife striking the floor and going down her throat. She died in about three minutes.

Nashville, Tenn., March 6, 1893.—The Stockton Medicine Co., Nashville, Tenn., Gentlemen: It gives me exceeding pleasure to speak of your Antiseptic, as I consider it something wonderful in the way of medicine. My old servant, Albert, who is 72 years old, was very sick with pneumonia, complicated with heart trouble and dropsy. I called in my family physician and gave him every attention, but the doctor finally told me there was no hope and the only thing that could be done was to make him comfortable until the end. At this time I decided to give him Stockton's Antiseptic, as it seemed to be performing almost miracles for others. It was given in regular doses every three hours and the fever began to decrease from the first dose and a decided improvement was noticed the first day. In three days he was sitting up and in a week he was back at his work as usual and is regaining in strength very fast. I conscientiously believe it saved the old man's life. Respectfully yours,

FRANK SEARIGHT,
No. 5 Noel Block.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. R. H. Caldwell will preach at Walnut Flat Friday night, Saturday night and Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

—The new Catholic church in this city will be dedicated Sunday, Aug. 20, by Right Rev. Bishop McCloskey, of Louisville. The services will be very interesting.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

—Rev. W. A. Slaymaker, who assisted Rev. Henry Miller in a meeting at Middleboro last week, says that six persons professed religion during the time, making ten or more up to the time he left.

—The 4th quarterly meeting of Stanford charge will be held at McKendree church next Saturday and Sunday. Dr. H. P. Walker, the Presiding Elder, will preach Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, also Saturday night and Sunday.

—CORNIN, KY., Aug. 14.—John Bell Gibson's meeting continues at this place, with 30 additions to date. Town stirred through and through. More than 100 people could not get in the house last night. F. C. Button, Principal Cornin Academy.

—The meeting at the Christian church closed on Sunday night with 10 additions, six by confession, as the visible results. It is safe to say that no series of sermons ever preached here received more attention and were so worthy of it. Under the electric light that Elder C. S. Lucas brought to bear upon the "hidden mysteries" of the Bible, they were made clear and the better understood passages were clothed in a beauty that gave them additional interest. Bro. Lucas created and left an impression for good here that will gather in force till the judgment. The prayers of all of God's people and the good wishes of all others will follow him wherever he goes.

The Sugar Grove Picnic.

(Editor Interior Journal.)

Saturday morning dawned very insouciantly for picnickers, but by ten o'clock the rain ceased and hundreds of people gathered in Mr. O. P. Newland's woodland to meet the Sugar Grove Sunday-school. This is one of the most prosperous Sunday-schools in the county and affords some of the brightest and most intelligent children that can be found in any community. The recitations and essays were all well gotten up and beautifully rendered. Space forbids special mention of all who deserve it, but we must say the babies of the school Myrtle Manuel, Tevis Collier and Beniah Edwards, did exceedingly well. When little Myrtle, aged five years, assumed a prayerful attitude and lisped the Lord's prayer, tears were seen in many eyes unused to weeping. Little Tevis recited "Mattie's Wants and Wishes" and the baby talk was imitated perfectly. Little Beniah rendered "Something to do," in a manner easily mistaken for a trained elocutionist. The song by the infant class, "Little Feet Be Careful," with little Bird Peter as organist, was played and sung in a manner that would reflect credit upon children of larger growth and better advantages. The organists, aged respectively 11 and 15 years, played every song in perfect time and the music was an enjoyable feature of the day.

The speakers invited to address the Sunday school in the afternoon, thinking the morning so ineluctable the picnic would be a failure, did not put in their appearance, except Rev. W. E. Arnold and Will Hansford, Jr. The Sunday-school is indebted to the former for a timely talk on "What Shall we do For our Children?" and to the latter for an excellent discourse on "The Future of the Youth of To-Day." Last, but not least, the dinner was not suggestive of breaking banks and hard times. The ladies of the Sugar Grove neighborhood well know how to prepare a dinner unexcelled in quantity and quality and all were abundantly fed. The neighboring Sunday-schools responded heartily to the invitation to be present and for miles around were well represented. We are proud of our Sunday-school and all who can attend are urged to do so until winter forces us to close until spring, when we hope to open again, with renewed vigor.

The sensation of the hour at Washington, Louisville and Lexington is the suit by Miss Madeline Breckinridge Pollard against Congressman W. C. Breckinridge for $50,000 damages for breach of promise and seduction. Miss Pollard charges that in 1884 when she was a school girl of 17, the defendant introduced himself to her on the train as a friend of her family and knowing his position she felt flattered at his attentions. Afterward he called at the school and got permission from the president to take her to dine with him. Her youth and inexperience gave way to his wiles and artifices and she fell completely into his power. The result was criminal liaison extending over a number of years and resulting in the birth of three children, all of whom died. The plaintiff, who is a tall and willowy blonde, of exceeding beauty of address, further avers that in the accomplishment of her ruin the Congressman promised to marry her and that various and sundry times were set for its performance, but he always failed to keep them from some excuse or another. A day in May last was finally set for the marriage and it will be remembered that a dispatch was sent from Washington, where the girl lives and where the suit is filed, to that effect. Col. Breckinridge vehemently denied the allegation and with an injured air claimed that "an enemy hath done this." A short time ago he married Mrs. Louise Scott Wing, of Louisville, and that event hastened the filing of the suit. He claims that the action is the result of "vindictiveness, vexation and perhaps blackmail," but we shall see what we shall see. The Colonel may not use a promise of marriage to accomplish his purposes, but he is said to be one of the boys and unlike Caesar's wife is not above suspicion when there is a woman in the case. And for that matter who is there among us miserable offenders that can throw the first stone? Miss Pollard is of decided literary tastes and has devoted her time since her discharge from a clerkship in the Interior Department to newspaper and magazine work. The discharge referred to was made by order of President Harrison because she remarked when Gen. Sherman died "now the devil has got his own." It is said that the new Mrs. Breckinridge takes the matter philosophically. She is too sensible a woman to believe that she married a saint, and having taken him for better or worse is no doubt prepared for the worst. The Colonel asks a suspension of the judgment until a full hearing is had.

The gubernatorial race in Ohio this year will be unusually interesting. The republicans renominated Gov. McKinley, the author of the tariff bill which bears his name and which the people so strongly condemned at the polls in November last, and now the democrats have nominated Lawrence T. Neal, a free trader and the author of the plank in the last National platform looking towards free trade. It will be a battle of giants, each man heading the hosts of his party on the tariff question and fully able to present his side of the case. The well-known views of Mr. Neal seem to be endorsed very fully by the Ohio democracy as he was nominated on the first ballot over half a dozen other good men. Boiled down by a capable condenser the platform charges our financial ills to the McKinley tariff, the Sherman silver law and the extravagance of the party lately in power, approves the platform of the democratic party adopted by the National Convention at Chicago, "and especially those portions referring to the tariff and to currency legislation," commends the measures of relief outlined by the President's message, advocates payment of pensions to all worthy union soldiers and no others and expresses confidence in President Cleveland and Senator Brice, as well as the lack of it in Gov. McKinley's "unbusinesslike administration of State affairs."

The editor of the New York Sun, Mr. Charles Anderson Dana, celebrated his 75th birthday and in speaking of it and him, Mr. Waterson says of the paper and him: The Sun never fails to shine. It may not shine as we would have it. But it shines. Its editor, though the most harassing of controversialists, is the most delightful of men. A scholar, philosopher and critic, the most genial and hospitable of hosts, the club laid aside and the wit mellowed into the poet and the artist, this great journalist and statesman disarms the opposition even of the most hostile by the glow of his personality and the splendor of his accomplishments.

SEVERAL well laid plans for outbreaks in the penitentiary of late, that were fortunately discovered in time and thwarted are further exemplifications of the truism that the devil always finds something for idle hands to do and emphasize the necessity of putting the convicts to work. Idleness is the parent of many vices and the State prison at Frankfort is in every sense the devil's workshop, with the most vicious the sole employees. In a search of the cells Friday over 300 dangerous and deadly dirks were found that the men had changed from dinner knives, while enough dynamite was discovered to blow up the buildings. The sinking fund commissioners should cease their bickerings and put the convicts to work, if it is simply moving from one side of the building to the other and back. We join the Courier-Journal in the demand: "Put the convicts to work."

THEY have got to do it all over again at Bowling Green. After Sam Jones' visit the people of that whisky-ridden place got so enthused that they voted red liquor out by a good majority. The validity of the election was questioned and an injunction to prevent its being enforced was gotten out. The tribunal before which it was brought declared the election null and void because of the unconstitutionality of the law and because the secrecy of the ballot law was not fully complied with. A higher court will now pass on the question.

THE agreement between the silver and anti-silver men in the House is that there shall be a general debate on the bill to repeal the purchasing clause of the Sherman bill to last 11 days and to be followed by a three days' debate under the five minute rule. The free silverites will offer a substitute providing for free coinage at the present ratio and if that fails 17 and on to 20 will be presented as amendments. If all these fail, then the Bland-Allison act is to be the final resort. Congressman Wilson offered the bill to repeal the Sherman law.

THE death of Judge Alexander Anderson, of Danville, which occurred Sunday of last, is in the nature of personal bereavement to the editor of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, whom he so long and faithfully served as correspondent. He possessed a bright mind and a social nature and those who knew him best loved him most. We extend heartfelt sympathy to his wife and three children with the hope that their great loss may be tempered to their abilities to bear it.

A KEG of beer is a bad thing to take along when you go out for fun. Six young men, all sons of widows, went out to the woods near Shelbyville the other day for a frolic and took a keg of beer along. After filling up with it they got quarrelsome and pistols were drawn. The result is one died, two wounded and two in jail. Look not upon the wine while it is red, may be paraphrased to read, keep your eyes and mouth from beer while it is foaming.

AFTER Bland's intemperate speech on the question and the discharge of other guns of more or less calibre, the debate on the repeal of the Sherman bill lapsed into dullness and taking advantage of the agreement that a vote should not be taken for 14 days from Friday last, the Congressmen have hied themselves to the seaside and other resorts till the wind storm is over. Only about 100 to 150 of the 336 members answered to roll call Saturday.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has temporarily laid aside the cares of office and hied him to Buzzard Bay where the uncrowned queen of American women and Ruth are spending the summer. The president gives it as his reason for going that he needs a rest, but those who know, say it was to be present at a looked for event liable to occur in the best regulated family.

THE assessed value of the property of the State exclusive of railroads, banks, corporation franchises and other species of corporate property, which is assessed by other boards, is $568,741,146, or about $29,000,000 less than last year. It is thought though that when the corporations are assessed the total will make the increase this year over $100,000,000.

THE women are coming to the front and usurping what have been deemed the exclusive prerogatives of men. One is in jail in Indian Territory for horse stealing. Another is in durance vile in Memphis for embezzlement. But women as thieves of such character will never be a success. They are not built that way.

THE commissioner is still at it. He suspended 286 pensioners Friday and as many Saturday. Let him keep the ark a-moving. There's thousands yet who are not entitled to the bounty of the government living in idleness on it.

THE Sedalia, Mo., Bazaar has ceased to blow its own, and the same shall no more be blown. A paper with such a name deserved to have its toes tucked under the daisies.

—W. R. Goff, a well-known tobacco buyer, while examining tobacco in a warehouse at Shelbyville, fell and crushed his skull, producing instant death.

—At Brazil, Ind., John McKay shot and killed William Rowe because he laughed at him when he stumbled on the street car track. McKay was drinking.

—A two-year-old child at Brazil, Ind., found a can of concentrated lye and drank a large quantity of it. The little things lips and mouth were horribly burned, while the awful drug slowly ate its life away.

—An unknown man who committed suicide at Wellington, Ohio, left the following request written on a small piece of paper: "Give my body to a doctor for it will save the town the trouble and expense of burying it."

—The wife of Capt. A. K. Lair, of Georgetown, accidentally knocked over a gun which was resting against the door. The weapon was discharged and the contents entered the back of the lady's head, blowing out her brains.

—Jack Chambers, a negro, was lynched near Waycross, Ga. He confessed to having taken part in a criminal assault upon Mrs. George Warren at Hoboken, Ga. last year. He is the third negro who has been lynched for this crime.

—Mrs. Annie Webster, of Keokuk, Iowa, has confessed that she strangled her child to death. Then in order to conceal, if possible, her crime, the unnatural mother boiled the body in lye until all the flesh was removed from the bones.

—Superintendent of Public Instruction Thompson has discovered that a number of candidates for school teachers' certificates in the Kentucky mountain counties have obtained possession by fraudulent means of the questions to be asked them in their examination. The penalty is disqualification and a fine not exceeding $50.

—Mrs. Matilda Simpson, wife of the man who fell into a hollow tree while coon hunting 20 years ago and was never heard of afterward till his skeleton was found when the tree was cut down, died last week in Mercer. She was known as the "sad lady," never having been known to smile since her husband's mysterious disappearance.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—J. E. Lynn sold to Pony Beazley a 3-year-old gelding for $175.

—J. H. Swope bought in the Hubble vicinity a bunch of butcher cattle at 2 1/2 to 3c.

—Isaac Herrin, bought of Young, of Rockcastle, a bunch of mountain steers and heifers at 2 to 2 1/2c.

—Kelly marked Direct 2054 and Flying Jib 2055. This is the fastest pair of records ever credited to a driver.

—W. P. Ruble, of Garrard, says he can make money raising wheat at 50 cents per bushel and will put in 200 acres this fall.

—The Reporter says that the peach crop of Palaski is large and fine. The local price is but $1 to $1.50 per bushel, while those who ship get $2.

—The stallion Nelson, driven by his owner at the Maine mile track, trotted an exhibition mile in 2:10, making the last quarter in 30, which is a 2:03 gait.

—W. A. Tribble's fine combined mare took two blue ties at the Springfield Fair and doubtless would have taken many more had she been allowed to enter after she had graduated.

—As was generally conceded, Nancy Hanks failed to lower her champion world's record of 2:04 at Boston, Saturday. The great daughter of Happy Medium went the mile in 2:08, however, which is a pretty fair gait itself.

—W. H. Leonard sold 15 head of 3-year-old steers to Ben Gabhart for $3. He also sold 65 head of lambs to the same party at $4.50 per hundred, and a suckling mare mule colt to Frank James for $75.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

—Yesterday was about as dull a court day as one could well imagine. A good crowd was in town, but there was no money in it, and as a consequence the day was a regular drag. There were 5 or 6 head of cattle on the market, but if there was a single sale made we did not hear of it. A few plug horses changed hands at $25 to $32. No mules were offered.

THE : LOUISVILLE : STORE.

A. URBANSKY, Proprietor.

—Under prevailing circumstances Mr. Joe Phillips made the best sale of mules ever known in this county. The lot embraced 50 head and were sold to Martin & Thompson, of New Orleans, at $180 per head, to be delivered here at the stock yards on the first day of September.—Lebanon Enterprise.

—The age records of the year up to date are: Yearling, Marie D., 2:41, by Patron, 2:14; two-year-old, Director's Flower, 2:22, by Director, 2:17; three-year-old, Jay Hawker, 2:14, by Jay Bird; four-year-old, Belleflower, 2:12, by Electioneer; five-year-old, Hulda, 2:08, by Guy Wilkes 2:15. Each is a race record.

—J. Steele Carpenter's saddle stallion, Wallace Denmark, trotted a quarter to a Frazier cart the other day in 30 seconds. Some gentlemen came to look at him and Mr. Carpenter was not aware of the fact that they were timing him or he might have been able to cut off a second or two. The horse had no shoes on his hind feet.

$100 REWARD.

HORSE AND BUGGY STOLEN.

On the night of July 12, '93, a BAY HORSE was stolen from the stable of James P. Bailey and hitched to the buggy of J. S. Hocker. The horse is a dark bay, almost brown, about 16 hands high, right eye is out though hardly perceptible; has had scratches and hair is off the hind foot, under fetlocks; he is 6 or 7 years old; in drinking he licks water like a dog. The running gear of the buggy is painted smoke color, with white black stripes or trimmings, all of it except the single wheel, which is black, the top and up are black and there is a place about two inches square cut out of the dash on the inside. The hind axle tree near left hind wheel has been welded and the paint at that point on the wood is scorched and entirely burned off the iron; the left hind wheel has two cracked spokes. The saddle of the harness has gone missing; the hip strap has been noticed where it was the breeching.

The following reward is offered, to-wit: $100 for return of buggy and horse and conviction of thief; or $25 for return of horse; $25 for return of buggy; or $50 for conviction of thief. All of these propositions will be left open for four months from July 12, 1893, at which time the reward will be withdrawn.

THE Harrodsburg Democrat says: "Mr. R. C. Bradley has been awarded the contract for an imposing frame hotel to be erected at once at Tatham's Well, in Washington county. The hotel will have 35 bed rooms, reading-rooms and dancing hall."

My accounts are due 1st day of July and January and will be glad to run accounts with those who pay promptly when due, but those who cannot and do not pay their bills when due, will please not ask it. I cannot run business on promises. J. K. VanArsdale.

THERE has been some talk that owing to the scarcity of currency the L. & N. pay train would be delayed this month, but it is given out upon authority that it will start on its rounds promptly at the usual time. Its 17,000 employees will hear something jingle this week.

At the instance of Jack Terry, Miss Josephine Gill was arrested and brought here for trial Saturday. She is charged with disturbing religious worship at Neal's Creek while Rev. W. E. Arnold was preaching there a few days ago. Judge Varnon was absent and the case was postponed till 10 o'clock to-day.

MISS GEORGIA LEWIS was awarded the $5 prize offered by the INTERIOR JOURNAL for the best speller that the teachers' institute would develop. She missed a few words, but very few, and Miss Anna Reid being a good second, was given the other prize, a year's subscription to the paper. Neither could have been won by a more capable teacher and the I. J. is more than pleased that they were the winners.

J. A. HAMMOND, our clever correspondent at Hubble, had his store broken into and robbed the other night. Entrance was effected through an up stairs window and the thief was evidently acquainted with the premises. A couple of watches, some shoes, hats, pants and a lot of cheap jewelry is missing. Mr. Hammond has an idea who the guilty party is and as soon as he has sufficient evidence he will have him arrested. "Detective" O. J. Newland has been employed to work up the case.

HORRIBLY MANOLED.—Doc Lanahan, one of the cleverest brakemen on the L. & N., was instantly killed Saturday night, near Alum Springs. He was rear brakeman on North-bound freight No. 32 and hearing the engineer whistle for brakes went immediately to work setting them. He ran over several box cars next to the caboose and in the dark thought he was stepping to another, but alas, the train had come uncoupled and claver "Doc" stepped into open space and fell under the car wheels below. Both legs were cut off and one of his hands was mashed into a pulp, while his face was badly bruised and cut. He was lifeless when the trainmen found him and his body was brought here and prepared for burial. Mr. Lanahan was a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lanahan, of Rowland and was an exceptionally good boy. His remains were laid to rest Sunday afternoon in the family burying-ground at Gordon Spratt's. The deceased was a member of the Knights of Honor and carried $2,000 in that order.

MR. JESSE CARTER has been appointed postmaster at Moreland.

A NICE rain, which seems to have been general, fell Friday night and has greatly revived vegetation, which was languishing under the protracted drouth.

SEVERAL Louisville firms attached the stock of Stephens & Knox Saturday and it was placed in the hands of Assignee W. H. Miller as receiver. See notice of auction to begin Aug. 19.

MISSER AMANDA BISHOP, 59, Joan Adams, 31, Jennie Anderson, 42, and Messrs. James White, 6, A. K. Caldwell, 46, are the names of the teachers who were accidentally omitted from the list in attendance at the Institute last week.

NOTWITHSTANDING these hard times a German from Ottenheim called for his watch, yesterday, which Robert Fenzel had fixed and threw down a crisp $500 note to pay for it. Fenzel was so stunned that he could hardly make the correct change.

DEATH.—Mr. and Mrs. Charley Hewitt were called on Saturday afternoon to mourn the loss of their little son, Charles Joseph, who died of brain fever, aged 21 months. The funeral occurred yesterday morning, Rev. W. A. Slaymaker officiating, and the remains were laid away in Buffalo cemetery.

OWING to the impossibility to borrow money, we are compelled to sell exclusively for cash from now on, in order to be able to continue our business. We are very thankful for the many favors we have received and hope to merit a continuance, promising you the best coal at the lowest possible price. Now is the time to lay in your winter coal. Higgins & Watts.

MCCLEARY NOMINATED.—The county committee met yesterday and decided not to call a primary election to nominate candidates for county offices till after the November election, as it was thought that too much politics might injure the candidates to be voted for then. As there was no other announced candidate, the committee acted wisely in saving the expense of an election by declaring W. F. McClary the candidate of the democratic party for superintendent of schools.

CUT.—Peyton Parrish was cut in the cheek, arm and breast at Crab Orchard, Saturday afternoon, by Long Frank Brooks. They had had a previous difficulty and when they met Brooks began the carving. Then he took to his heels and ran for dear life, although Parrish was unarmed, and has since been conspicuous for his absence. Our informant, who is a Crab Orchard man, asks us to state specifically that one is a Peachersville and the other a Rockcastle man and that they only met there by chance.

PROF. J. B. WALTON, A. M., principal of Centre College Academy, was here yesterday to get boys for that excellent school and succeeded in securing the promise of a number. A special feature which commends itself readily to those having boys to educate, is the home boarding and training department, where boys are taken into the professor's own family and given the same care and attention they would receive at home. A course of study is pursued which prepares a boy to enter college at once, at the completion of it, or fits him for the duties of life, if he cannot attend college. Prof. J. M. Ruple and J. E. Turner, graduates of Centre College and capable teachers, are in the faculty and add their quota to the pronounced success of the Academy. Read announcement of it in another column.

FILLED WITH SHOT.—At Duncan, in Casey county, near the Lincoln line, Will Mat Murphy and Sam Johnson, owners of a saw mill, tried to put out Allen McKenzie's light, but it seems that they were unable to do so. McKenzie had been working for the firm and was discharged and when he went to his employers for a settlement a dispute arose. McKenzie gave the d—n lie and made for Johnson, who fired two shots from his pistol at him, but missed him. Murphy had by this time secured a shot-gun and he emptied the contents of it into McKenzie's stomach and legs. The wounded man was left for dead, but when Murphy and Johnson returned to the scene they found McKenzie picking the shot out and not a corpse by a long shot. McKenzie is said to be a half-breed and is considered a very dangerous man.

THE fact that Congressman Breckinridge used to live at Danville and is well-known here, and the further fact that the father of the woman who has brought such startling charges against him, was for a long time a resident of Crab Orchard, gives her suit for breach of promise and seduction, a peculiar interest here. Judge Pollard, as he was called after his election as police judge of Crab Orchard, moved to that place a number of years ago and for a long time was storekeeper and gauger at a distillery. Miss Madeline was small then, but she is remembered by some as a bright little girl with a promise of beauty. Her father was a saddler by trade and was a great Odd Fellow, finally attaining the highest office in the Grand Lodge of the State. His remains lie in the cemetery at Crab Orchard beneath a handsome monument erected by the lodge there, which held him in high esteem.

—Ex Lieutenant Gov. Walker stabbed Lawyer Wyser, at Pulaski City, Va., in a quarrel over a damage suit.

—E. B. Wade, of Tennessee, has been appointed reading clerk of the House and Jim Stone, of Kentucky is left.

—The date of the marriage of Miss Georgie Barnes to E. M. Duncan is Oct. 4th.

—Anderson M. Waddell, a dead game and well-known sport, died at Louisville.

—A deputy sheriff and posse slew 11 of the Meachum gang in a fight in Clark county, Ala.

—A machine feeder in Bourbon was bitten by a snake concealed in a bundle of wheat and will die.

—The Minneapolis, which cost $2,690,000 exclusive of armament, was launched at Philadelphia Saturday.

—Senator Vest says the majority in the Senate against the unconditional repeal of the Sherman law will be at least eight.

—Incendiarists started two fires at Minneapolis and 112 houses and millions of feet of lumber were burned. Loss over a million of dollars.

—There were two deaths from yellow fever at Swinburne Island, Fla., Saturday and 14 new cases. One case appeared at Brunswick, Ga.

—Surgeon General Wyman has received a telegram from Pensacola, which says there is no further danger of an outbreak of yellow fever at Pensacola. Excitement is subsiding.

—Henry Holt, the fratricide, was hung according to program, at Pikeville, Friday, in the presence of 10,000. He confessed his crime and joined heartily in the singing of the hymn, "Nearer, my God, to Thee."

—The employees of the Evansville & Terre Haute railroad refused to accept a reduction of wages and the old scale will continue. Four hundred shopmen of the L. & N. at Evansville voted against accepting a reduction.

W. W. HAYS, Stanford, Ky.

EXECUTOR'S SALE.

As Executor of John M. McRoberts, Sr., I will sell at public auction on the premises on Saturday, August 26th, 1893,

Beginning at 2 p. m.,

Two Houses and Lots,

They will be offered first separately and then as a whole, the bid being accepted which will bring the most money. At the same time and place, I will sell the personalty, consisting of

Furniture, Buggy, Garden Tools,

Farming Implements, Set of Carpenter's Tools, Cider Mill, etc., of Hays, &c.

Terms:—On realty, one-third cash, balance in 6 and 12 months, with interest. On personalty, 20 and under, cash; over that amount on 30 days, secured with interest.

W. H. HIGGINS, Executor.

PUBLIC SALE.

The undersigned, as agent and attorney in fact of the heirs of John S. Hays, dec'd., will on Wednesday, Aug. 30, '93,

On the premises at public outcry sell to the highest and best bidder the Farm consisting of

About 240 Acres of Land,

Of which the late John S. Hays died possessed. Said Farm is situated near Stanford, Ky., and lies near and on the Stanford and Hustonville turnpike road and is bounded by the farms of Forrestus Reid, Wm. Beck, Mrs. Allie Farris, Wm. Hays and others. This is a desirable place, in the vicinity of Stanford. It lies well for cultivation and the soil yields a rich return to good husbandry. The Farm has upon it a weatherboarded log house of 6 or 8 rooms, under which there is a dry cellar, at all times; a large and commodious barn and other necessary outbuildings. There is in the yard a fine well of cool, pure and living water and also near the house a good spring, and for stock purposes two good ponds on the farm. In short, it is one of the pleasantest places in the county to live in all of its neighborhood environments.

Terms of Sale:—One-third cash in hand and the remainder of the purchase money in one and two years in equal installments, with 6 per cent. interest from day of sale until paid, and lien retained on the farm to secure the deferred payments, payable to the undersigned.

The Farm will be surveyed to the purchaser and full possession will be given on the first day of January, 1894, but for seeding, about 50 acres now in corn, the purchaser will have the right to put said land in small grain and the right of ingress and egress for that purpose to the place.

but for convenience we extend the above time. We propose giving our customers the best goods and guarantee to sell you Hardware, Groceries, Queensware, Woodenware, Tinware, &c., for less money than you can buy them anywhere on 6 months' time. Our explanation for making the change is that it takes too much money carry on our business on the 6 months' time. During the 18 months we have been selling goods our sales have been much larger than we expected and we are very grateful for the liberal patronage we have received. We are also proud to say that our customers have been the very best people in the land and we are sure we can make it to your interest to continue with us. We will continue to take Country Produce in exchange for goods at the highest market price. Thanking you for past favors, we are

Lincoln County Teachers' Institute.
The Friday morning session opened with music at the appointed hour under the supervision of Supt. McClary. Prof. Grinstead led in prayer. Minutes read and query box opened; contents readily disposed of by those to whom questions were addressed. M. D. Hughes having been assigned an address, presented himself without one, but furnished a substitute. Mr. Brough read a short biographical essay. The subject of difficult grammatical sentences was resumed and held the attention of all for an hour or more, when the Institute resolving itself into a committee of the whole, the accompanying resolutions were passed in their order.
Good-byes were said, when the Institute adjourned sine die.
M. J. BROUGH, Sec'y;
GEORGIA LEWIS, Assistant.

RESOLUTIONS.
The teachers of Lincoln county assembled in Stanford, Ky., Aug. 10, 1893, do adopt the following resolutions:

1. We approve of the calling of this Institute and realize the beneficial effects resulting therefrom.
2. We contemplate with pride the fact that Kentucky is now numbered among the States that yield the largest amount for the support and advancement of the cause of education, inasmuch as the per capita is higher than it has been for a number of years.
3. We approve of the harmony and unity among the teachers and commend their advancement and proficiency in the high and honorable calling which they have chosen.
4. We disapprove of the late law requiring that 25 per cent. of the pupils shall attend or the teacher shall be removed; for the reason that other causes may conspire to reduce the attendance when the teacher is altogether competent.
5. That the want of parental co-operation is deeply felt in our schools and we make united exertion to induce parents to visit the schools and to exercise a better control over their children at home, since no school can prosper without the aid of judicious home influence.
6. That such means should be adopted by which the patrons of the schools should be the sole electors for the school trustees, in order to eliminate favoritism and incompetency in the selection of teachers.
7. That we express to Prof. W. C. Grinstead our sincere appreciation and gratitude for the strong, forcible and instructive manner in which he has conducted our Institute and that we commend him to the school superintendents of other counties and general public as a bright, active and thorough educator, who is zealously alive to every question pertaining to the public schools and whose long experience places him abreast the front rank of State's most eminent educators.
8. That we extend to Supt. W. F. McClary our united thanks for the impartial, courteous and gentlemanly attention he has given us during the Institute and that we most cheerfully recommend him to the voters of Lincoln county for re-election to the important position of Superintendent of Public Schools, a position the duties of which he has already so ably demonstrated himself competent to discharge.
9. That we condemn as an outrage upon the common schools of Kentucky the practice that to an extent seems prevalent among district trustees this year, whereby they, in view of the increased per capita contract with teachers in many of the larger districts to teach for a longer period than five months for the public money. It is nothing less than an infamous imposition upon many young teachers who are compelled to accept such propositions or not teach at all. The reason our public schools, comparatively, are so worthless is because of the meagre remuneration of the profession which in many instances is calculated to drive able men and women from the profession. Then just as the per capita reaches a higher mark, in comes this abominable practice of calling for longer terms. We would respectfully call the attention of our next Legislature to this condition of affairs. Give us better better pay and we will give you your better schools.
10. That we thank the INTERIOR JOURNAL for many courtesies, not only during the Institute, but at all times. Editor Walton has been the teachers' friend, therefore we would recommend that every teacher subscribe for his excellent paper to show our appreciation of his kindness.
11. That the minutes of the Institute be published in condensed form in the INTERIOR JOURNAL and the Home and School.
12. That the thanks of the Institute be tendered M. J. Brough and Miss Georgia Lewis for the capable manner in which they have performed their duties as secretary and assistant.
13. That we heartily appreciate the kindness of Idol & Proctor, through their agent, Overton Pierce, for the use of one of their excellent instruments. Also that we thank Miss Georgia Lewis and Miss Nora Phillips for their services as organists.

A Good Housewife
will clean her house every spring and it is just as necessary to clean the system thoroughly if you expect good health during the summer months. Take Stockton's Antiseptic, it is just what you want. For sale by A. K. Penny, Stanford.

VERY fashionable for dressy occasions are cream-white silk gloves stitched very delicately in black.

The newest belts are those of several rows of beads held together by bands of finely chased imitation gold.

A new variation of the standard navy-blue costume is one trimmed with black satin and white lace insertion.

PALE blue is a favorite shade with Princess May, which accounts for its being just now one of the most popular colors.

FASHIONABLE blazers and reefers are of duck, pique and linen sacking and have all the fit and finish of a tailor-made garment.

NEVER was lace more popular than it is at the present time. From thirty to forty yards are used on a single silk-muslin costume.

It is neck and neck this season between lightweight, delicately colored wools and silks. Indeed, at the present moment the former are considered not only more youthful but more chic than the latter.

An easy way to freshen up an old waist is to add a flounce of lace, falling from the neckband in straight folds nearly to the waist line in front, forming epaulets on the shoulders and a collar in the back, but kept all in one piece.

Among the very handsome thin dresses are those of gauze brocaded in flowers. The skirts of these dresses are trimmed with valenciennes lace ruffles, and the waist is formed of lengthwise puffs of the gauze separated by valenciennes insertion.

Among the pretty midsummer dresses are those of pale ecru batiste in princess form, fastened at the back. They are made over slips of pale-yellow and are shaped to the figure by narrow lengthwise tucks and trimmed with drooping bretelles of gipure lace.

The newest thing in summer-weight hop sacking is in admiral blue, cherry red and silvery cadet blue. These are made with a simple Eton jacket and a bell skirt, somewhat less flaring than those skirts have been, with several shirt waists of plain China silk in white and any colors desired.

Botticelli and linen batistes are in great favor for midsummer dresses. They are trimmed with bands of insertion, either of gipure lace or of embroidery. Some batistes come in dress patterns, provided with drawn-work trimmings in rows and bands, for waist, sleeves, collar and belt, and with the skirt breadths finished with a wide hem headed with drawn work.

The fancy for round belted waists in all sorts of elaborate designs is carried out in various fabrics. Those of chiffon are just now very popular. Black chiffon is generally becoming and may be worn with a skirt of almost any color. The waists are either plain or are trimmed with ecru gipure insertion. When the insertion is used the chiffon is arranged in perpendicular puffs with the insertion bands between them.

NEW SAFETY BAG.
The Clever Invention of Lady Isabella Margesson, of London.

Pockets are to be counted among the many troubles of womanhood, and any alleviation of the difficulties entailed by a desire to carry all that is necessary with safety will be hailed with delight by our sex, says the London Queen. There is hardly any feminine pocket that can be honestly said to be safe for carrying money. Lady Isabella Margesson has, however, come to the rescue of her sex and has invented one of the most convenient bags which we have yet seen. It is, indeed, multum in parvo. It is intended to hang at the side and is divided in half, one portion being devoted to the watch and a small bag for gold, the other to the purse, while the pocket for cards and pencils is at the back. But by a clever contrivance the purse cannot be reached from the outside. By means of a spring the mouth of the bag opens wide and on unclasping the upper pocket first the purse is available. The bag is of a very moderate size, made in different kinds of leather, being ornamental as well as useful.

Both Lounges and Wardrobes.

Some wise women are having box lounges made for them. They are the shape of a Turkish couch in all respects, except that they have no curving "arm" at either end. The top is raised by hinges and is covered with a mattress and with chintz which falls in a valance around the sides. This forms the very thing to hold in its recesses madame's best gowns, which can be spread out to their full length without fear of rumpling or crushing them. No housewife ever had closet room enough, but this addition to the furniture of a cramped "apartment" would be particularly acceptable.
